

THE BAPTIST RECORD.

OLD SERIES VOL. XXXIV.

JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI, MARCH 10, 1910. NEW SERIES VOL. XII. NO. 11

LARGER GIFTS.

(Robert H. Tandy).

Men of Mississippi, hear; sisters of the kingdom, listen; brother pastors give heed to the urgent call of Dr. Gray and our Great Home Board: "The receipts of the Home Board are $2,000 less than they were at this same date last year. This in the face of the fact that our appropriations have been greatly enlarged. More than $200,000 yet to be raised in order to report out of debt at Baltimore. $56,000 more than has ever been raised in the same time." Are not these facts enough to stir us to greater action? Shall we vote for retrenchment by failing to provide for the appropriations for which we ourselves gave instruction? Surely Mississippi will never agree to this. But, if not we must raise in less than two months about $18,000. If we do this every church must advance.

The Best Contributing Churches.

Last year we had only fifty-two churches which passed the $100 mark for home missions. Thirteen of this number gave over $250, as follows: West Point, $810; Laurel, $777.05; Meridian First, $727.67; Hazlehurst, $500; Oxford, $455.65; Jackson First, $448.71; Clinton, $398.50; Crystal Springs, $362.25; Gloster, $352.05; Jackson Second, $319.06; Greenwood, $315.29; Kosciusko, $269.99; Hattiesburg Columbia Street, $261.65. The remaining thirty-nine gave between $100 and $250 and came in the following order according to their contributions: Brookhaven, Shuqualak, Columbus, Ellisville, Water Valley, Oak Ridge, Mt. Olive, Hattiesburg First, Leland, Tupelo, Lowrey Memorial, Durant, Aberdeen, Steens Creek, Greenville, Summit, Moss Point, Meridian 15th Ave., Biloxi First, New Albany, Canton, Brooksville, Hernando, Prentiss, Oakland, Itta Bena, Columbia, Flora, Starkville, Eupora, Shady Grove, Osyka, Liberty, Seminary, Senatobia, Magnolia, Hebron, Drew, Natchez.

If we reach our apportionment of $26,000 every one of these churches must make the necessary 20 per cent advance. Besides, we surely ought to have fifty other churches to join the $100 column. Which of the 1356 remaining churches will volunteer to join this noble band and pass the $100 mark for mission work in our beloved Southland?

Encouraging Signs.

There are many things which lead us to believe that Mississippi will do her full part. One pastor has promised to do his best to get $1,000 this year for home missions. Several other pastors whose churches gave largely last year have assured us that they would advance this year. A large number of our associational vice-presidents have written about the active campaigns they are making and promised large increases from their fields. Bro. T. J. Miley writes that the General Association is undertaking to raise one-third more than it did last year.

Let us remember that we are to raise $26,000 this year brethren, and that means a 20 per cent advance. Let every church make this advance and all will be well. We are trusting the pastors and think Mississippi will make the rise." Of course she will if all pastors will do as he is doing. Another brother writes: "We are raising our mission collection here from 100 to 150 per cent. Hope to make it upwards of the latter." That brother is not forgetting the perishing millions.

I want to ask whether there is some brother or sister who will agree to give the last $1,000 provided we raise the $36,000 we are asked to give in Mississippi. This is a big task before us. We can do it if we will. Let us change it, "We can do it, and we will."

Will the associational vice-presidents do their best and most earnest work in their associations during March and April?

We want to get every church in every association to take a collection for foreign missions. We are aiming by God's help to do better than 22 cents a member for foreign missions in Mississippi.

Write to me for tracts. I will gladly send them free of charge. Properly used they will do a great deal of good.

I hope brethren will write me how they are progressing.

Yours for saving lost souls in all parts of the world.

Hattiesburg, March 5, 1910.

From now till April 30th, the right of way will be given to articles on both home and foreign missions. From the interest manifested in these subjects and the amount of writing being done by the brethren for our paper it is evident that there will be very little room for several weeks for much other matter, especially for long articles. We have a few of this kind on hand now; and, though they are well-prepared, they must wait till these strenuous days of gathering mission funds are over. We make this statement that the good brethren, who have gone to the trouble of writing these good articles, may understand the delay in publishing them. We must, if we are to reach the mark we have set, center all our activities in the matter of gathering funds for these objects. Watch the figures as they appear from week to week in the center of the first page. We hope to see the amounts due on home and foreign missions diminish from week to week until the full amount due shall be canceled.

A blessed spirit of liberality is among the churches. If God were to send an angel with special message to you, would that angel say, "Thy prayers and thy gifts are come up for a memorial before God"? Could there be a better message from our Father? Brother, sister, make it possible.

we believe they will not fail us in an hour of crisis like this.

PASTORS GETTING BUSY.

(I. P. Trotter).

It is encouraging that so many pastors over the State are bestirring themselves and their churches for foreign missions. We need to stir for never before did the Foreign Board owe so much at this time of year.

I am getting letters of most encouraging kinds from brethren. One brother writes me: "I think my field will give about $350 to foreign missions which will be a nice increase over last year. I

News in The Circle.

By MARTIN BALL.

The Central Church, Greenville, S. C., has called Rev. T. S. Matthews, of Luray, Va. He accepts and will begin the work April 15th.

The Foreign Mission Journal says that Dr. P. S. Evans and family sailed from San Francisco February 8 for their work in Yangchow, China.

The Duffy Street Church, Savannah, Ga., has called Rev. W. T. Granade, of Montecello, Ga. He has accepted and will enter the work at once.

The recent meeting in the First Church, Greenville, S. C., in which Pastor Cody was assisted by Evangelist J. J. Wicker, resulted in 78 additions, most of them by baptism.

The Baptist Courier is constantly increasing the size to accommodate the advertising and reading matter. The Courier is deservedly popular and Dr. Thomas is one of our very best editors.

It is stated that Field Secretary C. E. Crossland, of the Sunday School Board, will soon resign his position to go abroad and study in Eastern universities. That sounds funny to this scribe.

Dr. P. T. Hale, who is working for the Seminary endowment in the district of Columbia, is succeeding nicely. He has raised over $10,000. Dr. Greene's church—Calvary—gave over $2,000.

The First Church, Little Rock, Ark., has raised the salary of Pastor Cox to $2,400. This comes after a pastorate of twelve years. The church expresses united affection for the consecrated pastor.

All the Baptist churches of Little Rock, Ark., unite in a meeting to begin April 4th. Dr. Len G. Broughton, of Atlanta, Ga., will do the preaching. He will have his singer and one or two other workers.

Early in April Dr. A. C. Dixon will spend two weeks with the First Church, Memphis, Dr. A. U. Boone pastor. Preparations are being made now for the meeting. Dr. Dixon is pastor of the Moody Church, Chicago.

Field Secretary Arthur Flake—one of the best in the employ of the Sunday School Board—has been compelled to cancel some of his engagements on account of the serious illness of his wife. She is now in a hospital in Memphis for an operation, and is doing well.

The papers state that the Fifth Avenue Church, N. Y., will very soon begin the erection of a $500,000 church edifice.

Dr. Chas. F. Aked, who lately came from England, is the pastor. How much good could be done if the pastor were only a sound Baptist!

Dr. J. B. Hawthorn, of Richmond, Va., went to his great reward last Thursday. His long useful life has been a great blessing to the world. He has occupied some of the most important pastorates in the South.

Dr. Thos. S. Potts, of Memphis, declines the call extended him by the Central Church and will continue the work he now has in hand—financial agent of the Tri-State Hospital. The work is succeeding admirably in his hands.

The church at Lake City, Fla., has called Rev. S. H. Thompson, of Bluefield, Va. He accepts and will enter the field at once. The Lake City brethren are drawing heavily on Virginia. They recently induced Dr. H. W. Tribble, of Charlottesville, to take charge of the college work. They want the best.

During the series of meetings held in the First Church, Greenville, S. C., Dr. Cody pastor, services were held every afternoon in the chapel of Furman University. Great good was accomplished. Evangelist J. J. Wicker did the preaching.

Dr. A. J. S. Thomas, of The Baptist Courier, says of the late Dr. J. B. Hawthorne: "In appearance commanding, in manner graceful, at times dramatic, in rhetorical finish faultless, in imagination brilliant, in illustration apt and always in good taste. He was an orator in the pulpit and on the platform."

Rev. Dan Q. Smith recently held a meeting with Warsaw Church, Ky. 33 professions and as many added to the church by experience and baptism. Bro. Smith says: "I always feel that something has been left undone when I see reports of many conversions and only a few baptisms."

Pastor J. B. Quinn, of Prentiss, writes: "We have just had Bro. Luther M. Tesh, of Syracuse, N. Y., with us. As a result we will organize three new classes—two Philatheas and another Baraca. Our work is on the up-grade every way—nice increase for foreign missions. I leave tomorrow for Atlanta to attend the Bible Conference in Dr. Broughton's tabernacle."

Rev. E. W. McLendon, who goes to Richton from Utica to succeed Rev. T. J. Moore, is making a favorable impression and the outlook is very encouraging.

ing. Bro. Moore did good foundation work at Richton for two and a half years. Pastor McLendon begins a series of meetings March 15th.

Pastor B. F. Whitten says: "The Central Coldwater Church is moving forward in a straight and upward line, evidenced by an increase of $200 to pastor's salary, and the largest mission offerings in her history. Our sisters have always been great and now our lay brethren are moving."

"FORGETTING."

Phil. 3:13.

(W. E. Farr.)

Paul, born in the ancient city of Tarsus, was familiar with the Grecian games and with the incidents connected with them. He had doubtless witnessed the contests in the arena, where the trained athletes strained every nerve in the race which was to bring them defeat or glory.

Paul had seen how they seemed to forget the great throng of spectators gathered from all parts of Asia, to be unconscious of the plaudits of their friends and the praises of their enemies, to lose sight of the track which lay behind them and of all the weeks of training which had prepared them for the conflict, and see only the goal before them, as they pressed forward and exerted their utmost strength to reach it.

As Paul thought of this scene it reminded him of the Christian race with Christ as the goal, and so thinking of these he wrote the words of the text. It would be impossible to forget the past, but there are some things we ought to forget. We should remember, however, our mistakes and errors, and thereby not commit them again, and that gaining wisdom and experience we may daily grow better and stronger. We should also remember the good things of the past, the beautiful visions that have come into our lives, and the blessings God has given us.

God sends us trials and sorrows in this life as means of discipline. Only yesterday as we buried a bright little boy, the only boy in the home, the mother said, "Oh, God, how hard, but thy will be done." Yes this was a sad home to her, but some day she will understand.

That life which has not been touched by sorrow or trial lacks completeness. There is something in a long sickness, in a sore trial, in a great bereavement, which seems to bring us face to face with God. Our lives grow more beautiful because of them.

Some things we should forget:

1. Our sins, and never moan over them, thank God we can find forgiveness. I know some men who always stand on the threshold of their old life, among sins, mourning over them. We ought to believe God when He says that "He is faithful and just to forgive our sins and to clean us of all unrighteousness."

Brethren, do not cling to your grief and keep some great trial always prominent. By so doing it will rob you of the power to help others, and we have no right to make those around us unhappy. Some are satisfied with the one experience of twenty years ago, that blessed experience, when God converted them. They never leave that and go on to higher experience. I don't believe a Christian should ever be satisfied with his attainments; there is always something more, something beyond, but some seem to be converted like the old woman was satisfied—"only in spots."

A new year brings new chances, but the man who is always looking back does not grasp them. We ought to have the desire to reach height yet unreach. The artist that is satisfied will never grow. The preacher who fails to study will not and cannot be of use to God, as he could and would be if he makes the best of his opportunities.

So with the doctor, the merchant, the lawyer, or any other professional man. "Our task here is never completed," said Dr. Harper.

There is no point on the happy voyage of life, beyond which icy cliffs and a frozen ocean forbids a passage. I believe the type for us is to express the ways of God, the complete man, Jesus Christ. To that supreme beauty, our nature is capable of unlimited approach. No man knows how much of goodness, nobleness and wisdom is possible for himself.

We will meet with disappointments and trials, but terrors accompany even hope when her sunny eyes try to pierce the future by their own power alone. "It is a maxim of the military art, said Napoleon, that the army that remains in its entrenchments is beaten." Let us as Christians press on to new victories. As we enter upon this new year, let us in a sense forget the things that are behind and look with hopeful eyes to the future.

If each of us could plan for the coming year, we would make choice of many pleasant and agreeable elements and would leave all that would hurt or annoy. But I am not real sure that this would be best for us. In the economy of nature we find night as well as day, clouds as well as sunshine, and winter storms as well as summer's mildness.

So it is best for us in the development of our characters and maturing of our spiritual life that there shall be some conditions that are severe, as labor strengthens the muscles and study increases the mental vigor, so do sorrow and affliction tend to strengthen our Christian character and make us turn more fully to the one who said, "As thy day, thy strength shall be." That one we must never leave out of our calculations.

We cannot do without Him.

There is no other name by which you can be saved; no way, no hope, no claim, without Him everlasting woe and everlasting night. But with Him, O, with Jesus, are any words so blessed? With Jesus everlasting joy, and everlasting rest. With Jesus, all the empty heart, filled with His perfect love. With Jesus, perfect praise below and perfect bliss above.

Here are a few things we should forget:

1. Our failures. As we look back how many of them do we see? They keep us humble; they make us prudent and cautious, and that is well, but very little memory of them is enough for us—certainly we need not brood over them. Confidence in ourselves and in our God mean success.

2. Our worries. Rub them off the slate. A good riddance to them. They are blundering sums, wrong from the beginning to the end, and certainly could not be kept there. The wise men have discovered that several fearful curses, like malaria and yellow fever, are propagated and transmitted by mosquitoes. For many centuries our worries have been compared with mosquitoes, and the wise men are only beginning to understand how these little insects of the wind poison the whole system, as well as the soul.

3. Our temptations are something we ought to forget—brooding with fear over the possibility of sin is next door to gloating in sinful ecstasy over the forbidden thought itself.

Thank God we are more than conquerors in Him. Forget the terrible power of the temper. Nothing twarts the devil like oblivion.

4. Our envy—manfully be yourself. Be yourself so exultantly, so proudly, that you would scorn even to think of exchanging places with another, or of counting another lot capable of adding anything to your own. Every insufficient life is inherently weak. I will not catalogue the ash heap—when we begin to clean out our minds we find so much there to throw away.

We can become master of the house in which we live from cellar to attic; it can be all clean and all ours if we wish.

The other night while the bells were ringing and the whistles blowing, I said well the old year is now on history's page, and the new year has rushed in. Then I said, Oh God, forgive in Jesus' name, and help me in this new year, that I shall do more for thee than ever before, and if I am not willing to be led by thy spirit, make me willing and reveal to me thy will. My brethren, we stand upon the threshold of another year. We see not one step before us; the future and its events are utterly unknown and unknowable to us, and bless God they are.

God has many things He might tell us, if He saw best, but He knows we cannot bear them, and He mercifully veils the future from our eyes. Whatever good He has for us, He keeps it as a glad surprise. Whatever ill this He holds and hides out of our sight. One blessed thought; whatever the ill or good may be, He will make all good to those who love Him, and there cannot be nothing but ill without His love. I think there is something better than knowing the future, namely, to have God's presence with us each day of the future. If God will keep us and lead us all the way we need have no fear nor uneasiness.

This is my message. If it has helped you, to God be all praise and glory.

SAIL THE SHIP.

"A small ship launched upon an unknown sea.

A small seed planted by an unknown tree;

Such is this strange New Year to you and me.

Whither the vessel groweth,
And how the tree up groweth,
God only knoweth.
But sail the ship and plant the seed;
What is done in faith is done indeed."
Belzoni, Miss., Jan. 4th.

A FAREWELL WORD.

(Jno. A. Held.)

I am constrained to say this word of farewell, and remark upon the kindness shown me while in this grand old State. It has been delightful. The brotherhood all over the State received me kindly when I came, and has treated me in the most cordial manner ever since. Beloved, I assure you, that in my memory I will revert often to the four years of my association with the splendid brotherhood of Mississippi. I am going back to my "native heath," richer in life's experiences because I have been here, in your midst. I pray God's blessings upon every one of my brethren. I shall never forget you, for you have become a part of me. So far as the First Church of Natchez (no longer Wall St.) is concerned, I leave it united, harmonious and wide-awake. God only knows how much I regret to leave them. My heart strings are bound to them, and I love them beyond expression. I leave this church only because the call of God seems to point to the other field. The man who shall succeed me will find a noble people—not rich in this world's goods, but rich in faith. The work is now on the up-grade and I trust will never be otherwise. May God lead them to the right man and may he send the right man to them. The chairman of the pulpit committee is Mr. W. G. Barrett.

PASTOR'S AND LAYMEN'S BANQUET.

The churchmen met with the Rev. G. W. Riley, pastor of the Griffith Memorial Baptist Church, on Friday night, March 4. The object of this meeting was to encourage the social feature of Christian fellowship. As has been stated by the pastor many times, "Half of the men in the church don't know the other half, and the other half don't know half the men who are not in the church."

The meeting had a three-fold object: First, for the social pleasure, every man becoming acquainted with every other man. It was the rule of the hour that all had to shake hands, even next door neighbors, and that every man should know every other man.

Second, for a full enlistment of every man in his church work. Some vital subjects on church and Christian duty were discussed which gave every man an opportunity to voluntarily commit himself to better things and more effective church work in the future.

Third, for getting hold of the non church men, and enlisting them in church and Sunday-school attendance.

THE BAPTIST RECORD

Thursday, March 10, 1910.

Following is a list of subjects discussed at the social menu:

1. My First Mustache.
2. My First Sweetheart.
3. My First Time to Go With a Young Lady.
4. When I Popped the Question.
5. When I Got Married.
6. The Old Time School Compared With the Modern School.
7. The Old Time Church Compared With the Modern Church.
8. Some Suggestions for the Good of the Sunday-school.
9. Some Suggestions for the Good of the Church.
10. What I Am Willing to Do for My Church. Every church man gave free expression as to his duty and what he was willing to do for the good of his church.

Then followed a nice luncheon prepared by the women, after which there were several songs, talks and prayers. At 10:30 "good night" was said, and every man went to his home feeling better for having come in shoulder and heart touch with his fellow Christian in a social function.

It was a unanimous verdict that this was the most enjoyable and most helpful gathering of the kind the men had ever attended. It was further suggested that the Pastor's and Laymen's banquet of the Griffith Memorial Church be a permanent feature.

Dr. W. E. Borum, of Oxford, Miss., was called to the pastorate of the First Baptist Church of this city last Sunday to succeed Rev. W. F. Yarborough.

The first number of The Baptist Forum has reached our exchange table, and proves to be a creditable magazine. It is edited by our old Mississippi friend, Rev. S. L. Morris, and published in Atlanta, Ga. It is a monthly and costs $2.00 per annum, or 20 cents a copy. We wish for the editor a large measure of success.

Southern Baptist Missions in South America, is the title of a valuable booklet by Rev. S. J. Porter, now connected with the Foreign Mission Board. It is designed to supplement the mission study text-book on South America, and a copy is given with every copy of the text-book on South America. The booklet can be bought for five cents. Every Woman's Society ought to have this little book.

The American Prohibition Year Book for 1910 contains 250 pages of the latest data, tables, diagrams, facts and arguments, condensed for ready reference, and is well illustrated. In cloth, 50 cents; in paper, 25 cents; paper per dozen $2.50, postpaid. It is edited by Chas. R. Jones, Alonzo E. Wilson and Fred D. L. Squires and published by the National Prohibition Press, 92 LaSalle Street, Chicago. We will fill your orders.

Rev. R. M. Boone, now pastor at Sardis, has bought The Chronicle. He was editor of this paper once before for a spell of 15 years. So gracing the editorial tripod will be no new experience to him. He seems to be well adapted to editorial work and loves it. He will take up the work on April 1st. The Baptist Record extends the editorial hand, and expresses the hope that The Chronicle, under the editorial care of Bro. Boone will efficiently serve the Baptists of Louisiana.

Our last information from the Home Board is that up until the first of March it had received $95,866, against $99,402 at the same time last year. This leaves a deficit of $3,535 as compared with the receipts up to March 1st last year. If the Board is to report out of debt at the Baltimore Convention, it will be necessary to raise $239,000 within two months. This is $55,000 more than was raised last year in this period. We can do it, if all the pastors and churches will remember and earnestly help this cause!

Bro. McComb writes: "We closed at Sumrall last night, March 6th. The Lord surely gained a victory there and Pastor Mize and his church are rejoicing over the results. There were 77 accessions to the church, 46 of whom were for baptism and among them some of the leading people of the town and mostly men. Also a troublesome debt of about $400 or $500 was arranged for in cash and subscriptions. The revival was one of great spiritual power and led to restitution and general correction of lives and conduct. To Him be the glory while to us come the blessing."

Another annex to the Baptist Orphanage is being erected. This will give additional space to the dining hall and dormitory, which is greatly needed. It behooves every friend of the Orphanage to be laying by in store something to aid in the erection of this annex. This additional space must be provided and also furnished with chairs, bedsteads, bedding and dressers. Let us remember that general giving makes it light on all and brings general blessing and joy. How glad we all ought to be to be permitted to bring comforts to little bodies and development and enlightenment to little minds and souls. This is a great privilege and a clear duty laid upon the Baptists of the State. Let your offerings go right along to Rev. J. R. Carter, Jackson, Miss. They will be gladly received and receipted for.

Thursday, March 10, 1910.

The Old Testament among Semitic Religions, by Geo. R. Berry, Ph. D., D. D., Professor of Semitic Languages, in Colgate University, is published by The American Baptist Publication Society, and sells for $1.00 net. It is well bound in cloth and contains 216 pages. The contents of this book are divided into five parts, each containing several chapters. It is quite scholarly, and, therefore, adapted especially to scholars, but part three, devoted to man, and treated under the heads Sin, Salvation Through Sacrifice, Salvation Through Incarnation and Salvation in Other Ways, is thrillingly interesting to Bible students of only limited literary attainments. This book can be procured from the publishers, or The Baptist Record for $1.00 and the postage added, which will make it cost $1.10.

On last Friday, March 4th, all that was mortal of Rev. T. C. Schilling was laid to rest till the resurrection morn, in the cemetery at Magnolia. He had been confined to his room for about 10 weeks. A very large attendance certified to the great popularity of this minister of the gospel and to the high esteem in which he was held. In this large crowd were nine Baptist ministers from various parts of the State. Truly a good and useful man has departed, to be with the Lord. May our gracious Father comfort the heart-broken family and especially her who had walked with this servant of the Lord for thirty-four years, sharing with him whatever fell to his lot. We hope to have in our next issue an obituary of this noble brother.

The Baptists of Baltimore are anticipating an attendance of not less than 5,000 delegates and visitors to the Southern Baptist Convention in May. Committees are busily at work making all necessary plans for the Convention. The chairman of the entertainment committee, to whom all applications in regard to hotel or boarding accommodations should be made, is Mr. Wm. Edgar Byrd, 213 Courtland St., Baltimore, Md. There are a number of excellent hotels in Baltimore and a great many boarding houses, but for those who want to make sure of satisfactory accommodations it would probably be wise to make their arrangements some time ahead of the meeting of the Convention. It is the hope of the Baptists of Baltimore that the attendance will be the largest in the history of the Convention.

REV. O. D. BOWEN AND THE ELLISVILLE CHURCH.

(J. D. Jameson).

For fourteen years in succession our beloved Bro. O. D. Bowen was pastor of the Ellisville Church, and few have been the pastors who have won the hearts of a people as our brother did the Ellisville people.

On the 5th Lord's day in January our pastor, Bro. J. L. Low, had Bro. Bowen come over and preach for him. It was not my privilege to be at home at the time, but I learned on a recent visit that the large church was crowded to hear their former pastor and friend. The sermons were said to be master efforts and produced a profound impression. The Lord was in his sanctuary and pastor and people rejoiced. It was a high day in Zion.

As an expression of appreciation of the church and community for Bro. Bowen the handsome sum of $72.50 was handed him, and all seem the happier for the contribution made. With joy I chronicle this noble act of a noble people for one of the noblest pastors any church ever had.

Bro. Bowen was pastor in the years when the church was not so strong as it is now, and had never given so liberally as they do now. Whether he received much or little he stood by his people faithfully ministering to them in spiritual things, and it is proper that he should now receive their temporal things.

Here let me record my love for this noble church for their great kindness to me while their pastor. Had I not felt that I could do more good in another work I know not how long I might have been their pastor. Not a jar nor ripple crossed our paths while their pastor.

So far as I know there is not another church in the State, or out of it, that pays as much for half time as does the Ellisville Church. Then in addition to what they promise they do much in other ways.

Our pastor, Bro. Low, seems happy in his work. The attendance at prayer-meeting is increasing, which indicates growth in grace as nothing else does.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with pastor and people. Ellisville, Miss.

AN URGENT NEED.

(F. Maude Williams).

I am sure no Christian nor right-thinking person will disagree with me when I say that the chief need of the age is home religion.

Where are the family altars of long ago? Why do we so seldom find them in the homes? There are a great many people who do not think family worship necessary if they all have the opportunity of hearing the Bible read and preached once or twice a week. Then, there are so many societies, clubs, etc., to take the husbands and fathers away from their families, that even if they were disposed to have family worship, they would not have time for it.

Isn't it beautiful to see the family circle complete, gathered at evening around the fireside, all in perfect harmony, with one purpose in view, that of glorifying God in all that they do, and ready to hear God's Word and return thanks to the Creator for the blessings bestowed upon them during the day? Count the families of this sort. How many are there? Alas! only a few. In place of this, in most families now, the one who should lead the divine worship is off for the lodge two or three and, in some cases, five times a week.

Oh that the men of our land would be impressed with the fact, that, although it is noble to be charitable and helpful to their fellowmen, after their duty to God, their first and most sacred duty is to bring up their children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. May the day soon come when they shall exclaim with Joshua: "Let others do as they may, but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

Parents are very anxious to provide food, clothes, life insurance and all temporal blessings (which are all right in their places) for their children, but what about their spiritual welfare? "Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?"

It is deplorable to find how ignorant of God's Word some children, and even grown people, are. Is it any wonder that they cannot stand when temptations assail them? Christ resisted Satan's temptations by the word of God. David said, "Thy word have I hid in my heart that I might not sin against thee."

What soldier would go out to fight a foe without being armed? Then, how foolish it is for one to go out to engage in the "battle of life" without sword or armor! How can one resist the onslaughts of the wicked one without the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God? If children were taught early in life to love and study God's Word, and to put on the Christian armor, they would be prepared to withstand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand.

O, parents! Think! Is it right for you to neglect the precious never-dying souls intrusted to your care, while you lavish your attentions upon the perishing things of earth? You know it is not. You do not expect your children to grow physically unless you give them plenty of food, do you? Then, how can you expect them to grow spiritually unless they are fed on the food of the soul? O, feed them! for you would be sad to see them grown in body and little in soul.

I thank God that I was reared by Christian parents, and was taught, at the family altar, in early childhood, to love, study, reverence and obey God's holy Word, and it has ever been a lamp to my feet, and a light to my pathway.

Sunday-School Lesson

By M. M. LACKEY.

To be studied with open Bible.

THE GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM.

Matt. 8:23-34).

Lesson 11. March 13.

Golden Text: What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?—Matt. 8:27.

The King Proves Still Greater Power.

The probable date of the lesson is autumn A. D. 28, several months after the healing of the centurion's servant. The time, evening, after a busy and trying day. Places, Sea of Galilee, and region beyond, Gadarene.

Verse 23: What did Jesus propose to his disciples? (See Luke 8:22). Does the word "disciple" here refer to the twelve? Had they been chosen by this time?

The twelve apostles are referred to. They had been chosen just before the Sermon on the Mount, several months before this voyage. Others may have been with them.

Verse 24: What happened as they sailed? (See Mark 4:37).

On what sea did this occur? The Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias or Lake of Gennesaret. It was about thirteen miles long and eight miles across, the widest part. The river Jordan empties into it, then flows out of it at the southern end. No body of water is more subject to sudden squalls. The gusts of wind sweep down from the mountains and come without a moment's warning.

How large were these boats?

They were open and usually large enough to carry twelve or fifteen persons.

What was Jesus doing?

Why was he sleeping?

Verse 25: Why did his disciples awaken him?

Verse 26: What did he say to them?

Was there any real danger? "When our fortunes are linked with Christ's and we are in the same boat with him we shall reach the other side safely in spite of the storms."

What did he say to the storm?

What was the result?

Verse 27: How did the disciples feel when they saw his power?

Why did they "marvel" at his doing what they asked him to do?

Verse 28: What was the country of the Gadarenes? The country on the eastern shore of the lake where there were several towns.

Who met him there?

What does Mark tell us about the demoniac or demoniacs?—Mark 5:1-5.

What were the tombs?

Why did these men live in the tombs? These tombs were frequently caves, natural or artificial; the maniacs preferred to live there.

How did people feel toward them?

Verse 29: What did they say to Jesus?

What is referred to as "the time?"

"Probably, though not certainly, pointing to a time of future judgment."

Verse 30: Was this a Jewish country? The region, while it doubtless contained many Jews, was not strictly Jewish, but Greek.

Verse 31: What did they say to Jesus?

What did they mean? "Showing a desire to continue possessing other creatures."

Verse 32: What did they (the demons) ask Jesus to allow them to do?

What was the result? How many swine were there? (See Mark).

How do you understand this conversation and its result?

"It is hard to understand Jesus' conversation with the demoniacs (note Mark 5:9-13) in the light of modern medical science except on the theory that he accommodates his language to their delusions in order to work with them to greater advantage."—Pilgrim Press.

Verse 33: What became of the keepers of the swine?

Verse 34: Who came out to see what had happened?—Mark 5:14-15.

What did they see and hear?—Mark 5:15-16.

Why did they ask Jesus to leave their country? The loss of the swine may have had some influence, but the exhibition of such power seems to have frightened the people generally.

What did one of the demoniacs want to do?—Mark 5:18.

What did Christ tell him to do?—Mark 5:19.

Where did the man tell the story of Jesus?—Mark 5:20.

What fine example do you see in his conduct?

Seek Further Answers.

What two truths did Jesus teach by calming the storm?

What verses of the Sermon on the Mount teach one of the lessons?—Mt. 6:34.

What is said in one of the Psalms about sleeping in peace?—Ps. 4:3.

Why did Jesus reproach his disciples—for cowardice, or some spiritual lack?

What impresses you most in the story of the storm at sea?

Jesus sent the demoniac back to serve his countrymen. What suggestions for us do you see in his act?

Where are most opportunities for service found? How are they often overlooked?

What would you have done in that boat long ago?

What would you do now?

Those Gadarenes loved hogs better than humans. Were they better off after Jesus left?

Have you anything today more valuable than Jesus?

Are you sending him away because you fear you will lose something which you count more valuable than Jesus?

Who in our State or county would most dread to have Christ come here?

Commit to memory the first six verses of the 27th Psalm.

TIDINGS FROM CLINTON.

(W. T. Lowrey).

Mississippi College is having great joys and great sorrows. Our meeting was a great joy, the character of our student body this session is a great joy, and there are many other blessings to rejoice over. In the midst of our meeting, however, we had a great sorrow. I carried to his home in Kosciusko, John Whitten, the son of that splendid preacher and pastor and man, Rev. H. M. Whitten, on account of a severe attack of appendicitis which had come upon him. The day after reaching Kosciusko an operation was performed, but the conditions were complicated, and a few days later John's manly spirit left his once strong body. It was a deep sorrow to give him up, but we hope and believe that he has gone to complete his course under a far greater teacher than any who could be found in Mississippi College.

We have recently had some other cases of severe illness among the students, but the healing touch has been given and the clouds have broken.

Hillman College.

For the sake of Mississippi College, for the sake of the young ladies of Clinton and the rest of the State, and for the sake of the educational and religious interests of the country many of us have felt for years that there ought to be a large and first-class female college at Clinton. Four years ago Lowrey & Berry bought out Hillman College. The institution was in great need of larger and better equipment. The new owners at once went to work to bring these improvements to pass. Within the four years a splendid steam heat plant has been installed, water works and sanitary conveniences have been arranged throughout the buildings, two new buildings have been erected, and all the old property has been put in excellent repair.

Within the last few weeks the old Walne property of two acres has been purchased, the old Hillman residence, with 17 acres of land attached has been purchased, and the way has thus been opened to give Hillman College a beautiful campus with all the ground that is needed for a large and permanent college. By the opening of next session we hope to have room for double the number of students that could be properly accommodated when the present owners secured control. We hope to add the industrial feature, which has been made such a success at Blue Mountain. We shall thus hope to have accommodations sufficiently elegant and comfortable for the rich and at the same time offer advantages to the worthy girl of small means. We hope gradually to enlarge the accommodations until the college is as large as it ought to become. We feel that all this will be good news to those who are interested in Mississippi College and Clinton and to those who are interested in the girls of Mississippi. We solicit the co-operation of our friends.

COLDWATER ASSOCIATION.

(J. S. Deaton).

At our last association our moderator appointed this scribe to bring up the annual report on foreign missions for the year 1910. Therefore I desire to make this appeal to the membership of the association: First let me say, we were asked to raise $1,000 for foreign missions. This is a very insignificant sum when we stop and remind ourselves that we are 3406 strong, about 35 cents per member, you see. Now brother pastors, see to it that your churches give at least the amount they have been apportioned, and ye laymen, do your best and let's come to the association this fall with our conscience clear, knowing that we have done our best.

May this be a glorious year for us in spreading our Master's kingdom.

SCHLATER.

(L. I. Thompson).

We see so many encouraging letters in The Record that it makes us feel that this is going to be a great year for the servants of the Master.

I give one-half time here and our work is progressing nicely. Our people are responding beautifully to the cause of missions. Our contribution to foreign missions will not be less than $30 and we are going to do proportionately as well for home missions. While we have done better, possibly, than ever before, our membership being small, we are not satisfied. We are not all bringing our tithes into the store house of the Lord. What we give we give. We are not raising we are giving.

Sunday-school is good, and our congregations at preaching are growing all the time.

These people are truly good to their pastor.

Bro. J. P. Williams is going to help us in our meeting beginning 5th Sunday in May. We are praying that the Lord will give us a gracious meeting. May every pastor join heart and hand in the great work of the Lord that his cause may be known and honored among men.

WEST POINT GIVES TWO THOUSAND.

(L. E. Barton).

It is now certain that West Point Church will give $2,000 for foreign missions. We have $1972.50 on the list and the other $27.50 is already guaranteed. We have 500 members on the roll, but only about 400 resident members. From 200 to 250 of these are represented in this offering. I suppose the crop failure here was the worst in the State but our people gave gloriously in spite of conditions. It is really becoming a matter of conviction with them. West Point wafts her Christian greetings to noble, energetic Hewitt and his great church at Columbus, to my golden-hearted Virginia friend, Shipman, and his nine hundred co-adjutors in Meridian, to the alert and capable Trotter and McMillin and their loyal cohorts of Hattiesburg, to Laurel and her vigorous and forceful bishop who won the banner for home missions last year, to the First Church, Jackson, that numbers seven hundred and fifty doughty champions of the King's army, to gloriously plucky Clinton and her scholarly pastor who probably gave more, in proportion to what they had left last year, than any other church in Mississippi, to Greenwood, the metropolis of the delta and to her big-souled and cultured Edwards, to Ellis and his regulars at Corinth—to these and others we send salutations and say let us have that $36,000 and then some more. I believe it would be easy to go to the membership of any church here mentioned and sell every dollar of $36,000 of stock in a corporation if ten per cent dividends could be guaranteed. As at Winona before the convention I say here in type that there are thirty-six churches in Mississippi that ought to give $36,000 to foreign missions. Oh in the name of the sufferings of Gethsemane and the agonies of Calvary will we never catch a real vision and be rid of little things in this cause which is bathed in the blood that was given as a ransom for a race of sinners?

This is no reflection on any church and no undue praise for West Point although our people have done nobly. But several congregations named are numerically and financially stronger than ours and ought, perhaps, to give more largely. Let somebody put the standard up to $2500, and we will see if we can make them move it again next year.

Our people are happy.

The executive committee of the Columbus Association recently met in West Point and projected plans for reaching all the churches in this spring's mission campaign. They drafted an urgent appeal which is sent out as a battle cry and published in the county papers. The churches were divided among the different towns and counties making each pastor and his band of co-operating laymen responsible for propagating the missionary doctrine in their own community and the surrounding churches assigned to them. Special missionary services will be conducted and collections taken wherever it is at all practicable. This may be worth the attention of other executive committees.

Pastor W. A. Jordan has taken very vigorous hold of his new work at Starkville. We learn from authentic sources that the people are much pleased with him. This is not a surprise. Keep your ear cocked toward Starkville and you will hear something worth while in our mission efforts this spring. This noble church under this new leader will consign past records to innocuous desuetude and make all congregations of her size and some strong ones "sit up and take notice."

MISSIONARY ENLARGEMENT.

(H. M. King).

A company of pastors and laymen met at the parsonage of West Point's great missionary general Tuesday, February 22, to discuss ways and means of getting a vision of the world's needs, and our glorious opportunity, before every church in the Columbus Association.

The Association was divided off as follows, and these churches to be reached before the meeting of our convention, by the pastors and laymen.

West Point to reach Phoebe, Hebron, Siloam and Cedar Bluff.

Columbus to reach New Salem, Pleasant Hill, Mount Zion and Harmony.

Starkville to reach Salem, Pearson's Chapel.

Brooksville to reach Sharon, Bethesda and New Bethel.

Macón to reach Elon, Rhuma and Mayhew.

Shuqualak to reach Pleasant Ridge, Secoba, Wahalak, Border Springs and Bethel.

Mrs. Barton, the queen of the home, entertained us royally, and when in due season the bell sounded, we were ushered into the dining room, where a sumptuous repast was spread, to which, from observation and personal experience, I can assure you all the guests did ample justice. Dr. and Mrs. Barton are choice spirits and we returned to our homes feeling better for having been in their company. Dr. Barton is doing things for Jesus.

What you want is an Edison Phonograph

Do not be misled. The only kind of sound-reproducing machine that is perfect is the one that Edison invented and the one that Edison makes.

It is the one with the smooth and perfect sapphire point that doesn't require changing with each record and that doesn't scratch—two points alone that should influence your decision.

Only in the Edison do you find the music-reproducing idea at its best.

Don't take our word for it. Compare the Edison Phonograph with all other instruments side by side on the same music, if possible, and then you will know better than we can tell you.

Edison Phonographs are sold everywhere in the United States at the same price, $12.50 to $200. Standard Records, 35c. Amberol Records (play twice as long), 50c. Grand Opera Records, 75c. and $1.00.

There are Edison dealers everywhere. Go to the nearest and hear the Edison Phonograph play both Edison Standard and Amberol Records. Get complete catalogs from your dealer or from us.

It was the pleasure of the pastor of Silvana Church on Feb. 26 to participate in the celebration of Bro. J. C. Hutson's 56th birthday and family reunion. Bro. Hutson is one of our best citizens and a prosperous farmer. The Lord has spared to him his devoted Christian wife, five grown sons and two daughters, of which any man should be proud. Bro. Hutson and every member of his family belong to Silvana Baptist Church.

May he and his good family be spared many years more to render the Master service and enjoy the blessings that come to the faithful. J. C. Parker.

The groom and the pastor entered the room from an opposite direction and were met at the altar by his future wife. The ceremony was that of the ring service and a very impressive one, the father giving his daughter away to his future son-in-law. The bride was attired in a white silk dress with a long trail and trimmed in pearl beads and white lace and looked very charming. The groom was attired in the conventional color, black of the very latest pattern. After the ceremony the happy couple sat down to the wedding feast, surrounded by their friends, which consisted of oysters, dressed chicken, celery, coffee, ice-cream and cake.—Duquoin (Ill.) NOTES FROM MEMPHIS.

(Thomas S. Fotts).

I am sure the great Baptist hosts of Tennessee, Arkansas and Mississippi will be glad to know something of the Baptist Memorial Hospital, and the progress the work is making. On Jan. 10, we began a campaign in Memphis to raise $50,000; this amount to be raised altogether outside of the Baptist ranks, they having previously subscribed about $27,000 to this fund. At this writing we have a little more than $33,000 in new subscriptions, which I am sure will net 95 cents on the dollar. I wish you would publish in a conspicuous place in your paper this list of persons who have subscribed $1,000 each, and ask some of our brethren outside of Memphis, whom the blessing of God has greatly enriched, to join the list.

All of these are beautiful gifts, but of two I desire to make special mention; that of Macon & Andrews, of the Macon & Andrews Business College, who gave $1,000 to dedicate a room for the use of their students who may become ill during their stay in this city. They have a great school and their students come by the hundreds from all sections of the country, and I may say, I do not think they can fall into better hands.

Another is that of Dr. Robert Fagin, a splendid young physician of this city, who out of gratitude to his grandfather and grandmother, who educated him, endows a room in their memory. How can any one build a more beautiful monument to the memory of their loved ones than to have a room in this great hospital, which in their name, shall be a blessing to the sick and suffering, through all the future? Since the 6th of February, when my work as pastor of the Central Church closed, I have been devoting myself wholly and solely to this great enterprise, and by God's grace I hope to see it through.

Any subscriptions sent by the brethren will be credited to their church and State.

THE LADDER OF PRAYER.

"The mystical ladder of prayer is set for our use everywhere. Our thoughts, weary angels, ascend. To seek our omnipotent Friend, While His messengers, radiant with light, Bring Heaven itself to our sight."

—Julia Ward Howe.

We have no apology to make for the free use we are making of the Missionary Calendar in these columns. This paper goes into many homes where the Calendar has not gone, and we hope in this way to enlarge the circle of prayer. We would that all our women owned a copy of the Calendar. It is many times more than worth the price, 15 cents.

Did you have a good Week of Prayer? Did a large proportion of your women attend? Did you have a magnificent offering? Did you designate what portion should go to mountain schools? Did you have some special uplifting experiences? If you did not you write us about it, that our hearts may rejoice together? Suppose we have an "echo" of ringing reports next week.

We are in receipt of a magnificent set of charts, prepared by our Home Mission Board, vividly depicting the conditions in our homeland.

They are an essential to our thorough knowledge of the needs just now, and we owe a debt of appreciation to our Board for preparing them. The set consists of six charts, 18x24 inches, and may be obtained from the editorial secretary, Bro. V. I. Masters, Austell Bldg., Atlanta, for the small sum of 25 cents for the set, postage prepaid.

You simply cannot afford to be without them for your church, Sunday-school or mission room. As soon as you read these lines, do a bit of first-class home mission work by sending the 25 cents for a set for your society or Sunday-school.

We have heard Dr. Gambrell say: "When you have done all you think you can possibly do, then knuckle down and come again and do some more." This is timely advice in the face of conditions confronting our Boards. Even if you have given all you imagine you possibly can give this week for home missions go over the ground again and gather up the stray nickels and dimes that you may have overlooked in the first round, and who knows but a nice roly-poly dollar may reward your search.

Special stress has been placed on home missions this past week, but must not let the work for our foreign fields be neglected. Distressing reports come from our secretaries in Richmond in regard to the slowness of incoming funds. Is it not a pity that we have to do our work under whip and spur of the exigencies of the occasion? Will it not be a glad day when we will all obey, "On the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store as the Lord hath prospered him," as we obey any other commandment of God's Word.

We note that the Brookhaven Y. W. A. has the privilege of an address on the "Possibilities of Southern Womanhood," by Mrs. Thos. Brady, of that city. This gifted woman is lending her bright intellect to the helping of her "little sisters" onward in the higher life. Other women of five or ten talents might take pattern, and thus largely help to solve the problem of enlisting our young women in missionary activity.

THANK GOD AND TAKE COURAGE

The need for home missionary work seems to increase year by year. Not only winning America for Christ, but keeping America Christian calls for strenuous effort. The unparalleled opportunities opening up in all parts of the world are being met by a rising tide of missionary interest in the homeland. Church members are increasing more rapidly than population. There is no more inviting field for missionary effort in the world today than is found in the Southwest and the opportunity is distinctly a Baptist opportunity. Surely no field was ever whiter unto the harvest nor presented the prospect of such hundred-fold returns in response to ready and meaningful mission endeavor. We need not pray for more opportunities until we have used up those we have.

THIS WILL INTEREST MANY.

F. W. Parkhurst, the Boston publisher, says that if any one afflicted with rheumatism in any form, neuralgia or kidney trouble, will send their address to him at 704-35 Carney Bldg., Boston, Mass., he will direct them to a perfect cure. He has nothing to sell or give, only tells you how he was cured after years of search for relief. Hundreds have tested it with success.

MAKE IT PERSONAL.

Have we spoken of Christ to our friends and neighbors who are among the "unchurched"? This is indeed beginning at Jerusalem. How many times during the past year or in all your Christian life, have you spoken directly to any one of religious topics? When Daniel Webster was an-

A WOMAN'S APPEAL.

She feels it her duty to send it to all sufferers FREE. You cure yourself at home as thousands will testify. No change of climate being necessary this simple discovery banishes uric acid from the blood, and brightens the eyes, giving elasticity and tone to the whole system. proached by a young preacher who had delivered a flowery discourse in the hope of winning a compliment, the great orator said to him, "When you preach the gospel, make it personal, personal, personal!" Make this matter of evangelization personal. It is the duty of every Christian to be in a real sense a missionary, an evangelist. Of course this does not mean that every member of a young people's society is to start out on a talking crusade. There must be the utmost tact in this matter of personal service. But it does mean that each member should be on the watch for the opportunity to reach some life through some avenue, and alert to seize the opportunity when it comes. In discussing this subject a friend of wide experience said to the writer, "There is not enough of personal approach. We do not make the opportunities to speak on religious subjects with our associates. When Christians are awake on this point, we shall find people ready and eager to respond."

TO THE BAPTIST RECORD.

I very much appreciate your weekly visits so that if you fail to come I feel very lonesome.

Some things make me feel glad, and some things make me feel sad, when I read how the Lord is pouring out his blessings upon the various parts of the State and elsewhere it makes my heart overflow with joy. But I have to notice some figures sometimes and they tell how far short we are in our obligations and then I feel sad to know that God's people are so abundantly able to meet all demands if they were just willing. But, alas! How few seem to hear the voice of the Lord saying whom shall I send. Some times I fear that we do not present the matter from the right point of view. It seems that if we would appeal to our brethren and sisters from the standpoint of a lost soul sinking into Hell without the knowledge of a Savior that the Christ-like passion for souls in them could be stirred to the extent that action would result. I must confess that I am bothered over a proposition made in The Record some time ago that had too many ifs. The brother that would send 20 new missionaries and sustain them one year if the Board got out of debt. I do not believe that is the scriptural way of giving. The Lord says give NOW, give as we are prospered, not according to what others will do. I know Paul commended one church for leading others in giving, but they gave, not withheld to see if the others would. If that brother has been thus prospered of the Lord, I feel like he should help his brethren pay the debt. If all should withhold upon an if we would be sure not to get out by May 1st.

I notice that brethren are making appeals from this point suggesting that we rally to the apportionment so that we may get this handsome help. As for me I cannot give another cent more because of what my brother is doing. Nor can I make an appeal for more because of what others do or do not. But I must close. I just drop these thoughts for consideration. I am no criterion, just an humble

IS THE HOOKWORM SAPPING YOUR LIFE BLOOD?

If you eat well but keep thin, and if you feel tired and lazy without apparent cause, you probably have HOOKWORM disease. (Hookworms.) Millions of minute worms, the head of each armed with hook-like teeth by which it anchors itself to the lining membrane of the intestine, thus boring its head into the flesh and sucking the life blood day and night. HOOKWORM EGGS SEEN THROUGH MICROSCOPE. MOST COMMON DISEASE IN THE SOUTH. Hookworm is an old disease, but recent tests by army surgeons and specialists show that it is vastly more common than formerly supposed. It is contracted by handling damp soil or eating uncooked fruits or vegetables. Nine out of ten school children and hundreds of thousands of grown people in the South have the disease. Every community has numerous cases. There is no pain, only weakness and prostration to other diseases. TREATMENT INVARIABLY CURE. The "Taylor Prescription," originated by Dr. J. N. DEATHS.

L. D. Greenlaw.

This good man, good citizen, good father, good deacon and good Christian, went to his reward Feb. 23, 1910. For many years he lived and labored in Mississippi, but the last four years of his life were spent in Louisiana. He was faithful in all the walks of life, and deserves to rest in his tomb under this epitaph: "He was a good man, full of faith, and the Holy Spirit."

May God bless his sorrowing loved ones.

Pastor.

George Yarborough.

It becomes my sad duty to chronicle the death of an esteemed friend and brother beloved, for which I ask space in our paper.

George, son of John and Mary E. Yarborough, was born in Holmes county, Miss., on December 4, 1870. At the age of 14 he united with the old Central Baptist Church, of which he remained an exemplary member to the day of his death, which sad event occurred on the morning of February 18, 1910, in the Sanitarium at Jackson.

Bro. Yarborough was a man naturally of a high sense of honor—this he inherited from his father—and when he gave his heart to the Savior he consecrated his life to his service, and his religion was a sacred principle with him never to be compromised. He was a man void of selfishness, when he was just coming into manhood's estate at that age when most young men are planning for their own welfare and building for their own future, his father's health failed, making it necessary for him or his older brother—who was then striving to prepare himself for the ministry feeling that God had called him to that exalted position—to leave school and take up the responsibilities of the farm, and the care of the family. This duty would naturally fall to the elder brother, but George said, no, you go on and prepare yourself for your work; I can better afford to miss an education than you, and gave up his education and came home and took charge of the farm and the responsibilities of caring for the family, and thenceforth he cared for an invalid father with all the tenderness of his unselfish nature, besides the care of a sister and step-mother, and his preacher brother holds in grateful remembrance this unselfish spirit so characteristic of his deceased brother. I have heard him say whatever of success attended his ministry, whatever he had or may yet accomplish was largely due to George's unselfish spirit.

Being of a retiring nature his religion was of that unobtrusive kind which never attracts attention to itself. His religion was an every day religion, wherever you saw him, in whatever engaged, there was that demeanor that marked him a Christian. He was a man of a sympathetic nature, to see others in distress distressed him and he was ever ready to assist the needy. He had the confidence of all that knew him and his friends were legion. As a son he was dutiful, as a brother faithful, as a friend true, and as a Christian gentleman beyond reproach.

In the summer of 1906 he was married to Mrs. Rosa Sample, who preceded him to the great beyond only a few months, dying in a sanitarium in Yazoo City in August, 1909. He leaves two brothers and one sister, all living in different States, the sister, Mrs. Lucile Doty, lives in Kerrville, Texas, Dr. W. F. Yarborough in Anniston, Ala., and A. P. Yarborough near Goodman, Holmes county, Miss., his father, mother and two brothers having preceded him across the river.

The family, once a large and influential one, is left without a representative in the church and neighborhood where once the name was identified with every good cause. For a number of years George was clerk of the church and was ever ready with his time and means to do what he could for the cause of his Lord and Master. About three or four weeks before his death he had an attack of appendicitis and on the advice of his local physician, he was carried to the sanitarium in Jackson for an operation. There the surgeon found a complication of troubles. The operation was successfully performed, though a difficult one, and he came from under the knife hopeful, but the shock was too great for his already overstrained nerves and weakened body, and all that medical skill and scientific surgery could do was done, but to no avail, and after a heroic struggle and weeks of suffering the silver cord was broken and the immortal spirit took its flight back to the God who gave it.

On the morning of the 19th of February, 1910, in the old Central Cemetery, where he had helped to lay so many, close by the old homestead, in the presence of a large concourse of relatives, friends and neighbors, we said the last sad rites and laid the mortal remains to rest until the resurrection morn. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them.

His true friend,

J. P. Hickman.

—You Can Have it Free and Be Strong and Vigorous.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, failure of memory and lame back, brought on by excesses, unnatural drains or the follies of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and virility, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription, free of charge, in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope, to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men, and I am convinced it is the surest-acting combination for the cure of deficient manhood and vigor-failure ever put together.

I think I owe it to my fellow man to send them a copy in confidence, so that any man, anywhere, who is weak and discouraged by repeated failures may stop dragging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quickest-acting, restorative, upbuilding, SPOT-TOUCHING remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home quickly and quietly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 3721 Oak Bldg., Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this splendid recipe in a plain, ordinary envelope free of charge. A great many doctors would charge $2.00 to $5.00 for merely writing out a prescription like this—but I send it entirely free.

Whereas, She was one of the charter members of the Woman's Missionary Union of Laurel Second Baptist Church, therefore be it resolved First, That while we acknowledge the wisdom of him who doeth all things well, we most deeply deplore the unspeakable loss which our union has sustained.

Second, That she has ever been a bright and shining light in our midst. Her untiring devotion to every good cause has ever been an inspiration to us. Our church and society have lost a devoted and faithful member and the family a loving wife and mother.

Third, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to that inner circle of her family, whose loss is greater than all others, and that we commend them in their time of trial to the grace of God, which alone can sustain them in the hour of need.

HERE IS WHAT IS THE MATTER.
(A reply to Bro. A. B. Kelly's question, "What Is the Matter?")
(J. W. Lees.)

Bro. A. B. Kelly has observed the "meanness" of the Baptist ministry of Mississippi concerning the interdenominational Laymen's meetings and in his "friendly chat" and "heart to heart talk" seriously asks the question: "What is the matter with our Baptist preachers in Mississippi that they are not concerning themselves any more than they are about the great Laymen's Missionary Movement so widely and largely before the Protestant denominations in our State and Nation?" When I had finished reading Bro. Kelly's article I said this dear layman is in earnest and his question should be answered seriously, honestly and plainly by his ministerial brethren. Since I have been "mum" in speech and pen, besides being absent from these great meetings so widely advertised and largely attended, I felt that I should speak for myself. I resolved to do so, not because I desired to be heard, nor because I felt that I am wiser than my brethren, but because of a consciousness that I belonged to the very class referred to by Bro. Kelly.

Before taking up my pen to write I picked up the Western Recorder and turning to the editorials as I always do first, to my surprise the first editorial was an expression from the editor on the Interdenominational Laymen's Movement. I said here is my answer to Bro. Kelly's question better written than I can write it myself. Bro. Kelly will please accept the editorial as my answer to his questions. It is as follows:

The Laymen's Missionary Movement. We wish to preface this article with the statement that though we have not conferred with flesh and blood, we have both thought and prayed before editorializing upon this subject. Yea, we have waited, hoping that some one our senior in years and service might make, what would seem to us, a needed deliverance upon this timely subject.

As we see it, there is no necessity, real or apparent, for Baptists entering this union movement. Baptists already have a distinctive Laymen's Movement, and within this movement there is ample opportunity for the full exercise of the time and talents of all of our brethren. Nothing whatever can be accomplished by this union movement, which cannot, so far as Baptists are concerned, be better accomplished within denominational lines. This movement, then, with Baptists at least, is a needless and expensive repetition of the work in which they are already engaged.

But even a graver objection to this movement from the Baptist point of view is that it definitely commits our people to the advocacy of union meetings. This is the inevitable logic of entering this union movement. If the men of our churches can rightly join in a union meeting for men, then there is no possible reason why the entire church should not do the same thing, and that too with equal propriety. If this be true, then the day of denominational evangelism

Heart Trouble from Childhood

"I suffered with my heart from childhood; could not sleep on left side. Eleven bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy removed all these troubles, and brought complete recovery." MRS. H. C. CRUSE, San Francisco, Calif.

The life of the body is the blood. It runs on and on, carrying nourishment and gathering up impurities as long as life lasts—the heart makes it go. When the heart is weak it cannot do this; and dizzy spells, palpitation, short breath, indicate that it is doing its work imperfectly.

Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy strengthens the heart nerves and muscles, and restores normal action to the heart.

The first bottle will benefit; if not, your druggist will return your money.

most, and should, pass away. We are painfully aware that many of our brethren are greatly in favor of union meetings, and with this number, of course, the movement will appeal with peculiar force.

Another and very serious objection to this movement is that it lacks proportion. The movement magnifies foreign missions but utterly ignores home, State and district missions. We seriously object to any organization which emphasizes one phase of mission work to the utter exclusion of all others. In our judgment, though foreign missions are vastly important, they are not on whit more important than home missions. Besides, if it be granted that a laymen's union organization is necessary for foreign missions, should not there also be one for home missions, and in fact for all other missions of every character?

Not only does the movement lack proportion, but it likewise seems to lack poise. For example the main mandate of this movement is, that the world must be evangelized in this generation. This may or may not be a desirable consummation. The solution of the question must depend upon the will of God in the premises. Since, too, God has not fixed the time for the evangelization of the world, we rather doubt the propriety of men doing so. If our brethren can fix the date for the evangelization of the world, why not with equal right fix the time for the second coming of Christ, and some other things which have puzzled many of the saints. Let not the well-known modesty of these brethren deter them in this regard. We pass over the fact that this movement was, for orthodoxy, geographically badly born. Our brethren have tested and tried out many and diverse schemes of liberalism and union, and that, too, somewhat to their own undoing. Let us profit by their experience and avoid their mistakes.

A little girl, stopping in Boston en route from Connecticut to Maine, was desirous of taking a beautiful Angora cat to the woods with her. Her mother objected on the ground of the care and inconvenience of traveling with the pet, and tried to dissuade the child by offering to give her a dollar to spend in Boston if she would give up the idea. The little girl thought it over, then replied, "But mother, how much longer a cat would last than a dollar."

Here Is Power You Can Depend On

KEEP ahead of your work and get things done more rapidly, easily and at less cost by using an IHC gasoline engine. Until you install one of these engines you are not getting all the profit you deserve from your farming operations. It solves the "help" problem. It is the most economical worker on the farm. At any hour of any day or night it is ready to operate the cream separator, the pump, the grinder, the saw, fanning mill, sheller, huller, grindstone, washing machine, lighting system—any one of many such jobs.

Thousands of farmers have come to depend on this most reliable of helpers, an

IHC Gasoline Engine

Made in Different Styles and Sizes to Suit Every Man's Needs

The IHC line of engines is the most popular on the farm because they are so simple in construction. No previous experience is needed to operate them with complete success. Besides, they develop the greatest power possible from every gallon of gasoline.

Equip a power house at low cost. It will be the biggest paying investment you ever made. Or get a portable engine mounted on trucks or skids.

A pumping engine will solve the wind and water problem; a spraying outfit will enable you to protect your fruit from disease, worms and blight; a sawing outfit will lighten your labor, and a plowing outfit will save your time and horses. Get one, and learn its labor-saving qualities.

There are many styles and sizes, from 1 to 25-horse power—an engine for every section and every problem. Vertical and horizontal (both stationary and portable.) Also gasoline tractors—first-prize gold-medal winners—the best all-round farm tractors.

Call and take up the matter with our local agent in your town, or write direct for catalogue and further information.

THE BEST SEED THAT GROWS—SELECTED FOR THE SOUTH

THIS is the prize-winning Corn for the greatest number of large, perfect ears per acre. The BEST big-eared maize crop ever. Our thoroughbred "pedigree" seed is yielding from 80 to 120 bushels per acre every year. Our seedlings from every state are rearing successful crops. The ears average 10 to 12 inches long, with 18 to 20 rows of perfectly formed, deeply set, white grains. Ears average about 85 per cent grain, stalks deep rooting and very strong. Practically no barren ears or machine. It will pay you to plant Shaw Corn. Use a little of it, this year—just enough to get plenty of this "pedigree" seed for planting your entire crop the following season. The immense yield will agreeably surprise you.

Prices: Packet, 10c.—Flat, 50c.—Quart, 1.00.—Bushel, $1.00; not prepaid. Order by mail. It means money to you.

IN the interest of scientific farming, we have prepared a booklet which we are sending absolutely free to any farmer who requests us to mail it. It is a very interesting document devoted specifically to the planting of Corn. For a good many years we have given deep thought and much study to this special branch of agriculture. The information that it contains will prove of considerable value to planters, because it points out the way to more successful and profitable Corn growing. It means more corn per acre. Write us to send you this free "Corn Book." A postal card will do.
